The Fifth Sunday
of Lent
April 6, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we begin Holy Week with Palm Sunday, a day of stark contrasts. In the Gospel of Luke (19:28–40), we join the joyful crowds welcoming Jesus into Jerusalem, waving palms and proclaiming Him king. Yet, this triumph quickly gives way to the somber reality of His Passion (Luke 22:14–23:56), where Jesus faces betrayal, suffering, and death on the cross.

This journey from "hosannas" to the cross invites us to reflect on our own faith. Like the crowds, we may eagerly praise Jesus in moments of grace, but are we ready to follow Him through sacrifice and surrender? Luke's Gospel shows us a Savior who, even in agony, offers forgiveness to a thief, comfort to the sorrowful, and trust in God's plan. Jesus' love remains steadfast, calling us to embrace His mercy and carry our crosses with courage.

As we enter this sacred week, let us walk with Jesus—through the Upper Room, the Garden, and the Way of the Cross. May we prepare our hearts for the glory of Easter by deepening our prayer, and sharing His love with others. Join us for the Triduum services as we celebrate the mystery of our redemption.

In Christ's Peace,
Fr. Jeff
