Easter Sunday Of The Resurrection Of The Lord
April 20, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we gather this Easter, my heart is joyful, reflecting on the gentle power of the Resurrection. In Luke 24:1-12, we hear of the women who approached the tomb at dawn, their hearts heavy with grief, only to find the stone rolled away and the tomb empty. The angels' words, "He is not here, but has risen," stirred a hope they could scarcely grasp.

This quiet miracle speaks to us now. The empty tomb isn't just a story of triumph; it's a promise that God sees our struggles and meets us in our doubts and sorrows. Christ's rising reminds us that no darkness is too deep for God's love to overcome. It's a hope that doesn't shout but whispers, inviting us to trust in God's faithful presence.

This Easter, may we carry this humble hope into our lives. Like the women, let's share the good news with open hearts, offering kindness to those who need it most. Christ is risen, and in Him, we find life anew. May this truth guide and comfort you today.

With heartfelt Easter blessings,
Fr. Jeff
