The Second Sunday
in Lent

March 16, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

As we journey through Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Holy Thursday, we are called to deepen our discipleship. This sacred season, unfolding now in March 2025, invites us to follow Christ with open hearts. This Sunday's Gospel, Luke 9:28-36, reveals Jesus transfigured, His glory shining before Peter, James, and John. Amid this awe, God's voice commands, "Listen to Him." These words echo through Lent, urging us to heed our Savior's call to love, sacrifice, and serve.

Discipleship means more than penance—it's walking with Jesus, as He did with His disciples. Through prayer, we listen to His voice; through fasting, we clear space for His will; through almsgiving, we share His mercy. Our patroness, Our Lady of the Waters, inspires us to let faith flow outward, serving others. Join our Lenten Masses, Stations of the Cross, and outreach, growing as His followers. As we near Holy Thursday and the Triduum, may we listen to Him, our guide to Easter's promise.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Jeff
